

East View hosts Kodeks Russian Law Database in English

East View announces the addition of the Kodeks Russian Law Database in English.

Kodeks Russian Law Database in English includes all Federal Normative Acts translated into English. This database contains information on more than 4,200 documents related to various branches of legislation, including commercial, tax, labor, arbitration, patent, and copyright laws.

All documents including Codes and Federal laws are in full-text. 1,724 documents within the database are in full text translated into English. The remaining 2,500 documents are shown as cards, containing basic information on the document. This includes the following information in English: title, number, enactment date, effective date, reading, etc.

Documents placed as cards are marked "without text" in the title.

Kodeks Russian Law Database in English contains 14 Codes, including the Civil, Tax, Customs, Arbitration, Land, and other Codes, more than 400 Federal Laws regulating an array of activities, more than 150 decrees of the President of Russia, more than 900 resolutions from the Government of Russia, and official documents from other federal branches of power.

Full text documents are added to the database on a monthly basis. Each month documents are checked for amendments or new selections. When selecting new documents for full text, the wishes of users are taken into account.

The database is designed for ease of use. Users may search by title, context, enacting body, enactment date, effective date, subject, and other attributes.
